

Mental Illness & Crisis Intervention

Use of Force & Individuals with Mental Illness – Crisis Intervention Team Training

www.robsonforensic.com/articles/use-of-force-mental-illness-expert-witness

Early Involvement of Mental Health Interventions Provides the Best Possible Outcome for All Parties

Justin Ramsdell
Psychologist

Justin Ramsdell is a clinical psychologist and college professor who specializes in issues relating to mental health treatment in correctional/custodial environments, law enforcement interactions with individuals with severe mental illness, the ethical practice of psychology, risk of violent recidivism assessment, and abduction and captivity scenarios.

Dr. Ramsdell holds masters and doctoral degrees in clinical psychology and is a licensed psychologist. He is also an Assistant Professor of Psychology at George Mason University.

Take the Next Step:

- Visit us online to read substantive other technical articles
- Call 800.813.6736 to speak with a relevant technical expert
- Submit an inquiry at www.robsonforensic.com/contact
- Email us at inquiries@robsonforensic.com